BROOMLEY GRANGE OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES & CONFERENCE CENTRE

The certified training centre of the Boys Brigade, Broomley Grange is set in 22 acres of activity fields and woodland. The main building houses accommodation, activity areas and meeting rooms over two floors.

The ground floor includes two large lounge areas with TV, DVD and video facilities, two conservatories offering visitors table tennis and pool tables, and a large dining room and tuck shop selling sweets and small gifts. Upstairs, the centre features a variety of - double, single and group - comfortable, tastefully decorated bedrooms, each with hand basins and large shower/WC rooms. Camping is also available in three locations within the centre's grounds and a nightly rate is charged. Broomley Grange offers a range of team building activities both onsite and off. Within the centre's grounds visitors can enjoy: abseiling, an assault course, archery, camp craft, climbing wall, crate stacking, rope course, orienteering circuit, tunnel system and a zip wire. Young people can also undertake a course in survival skills & bush craft. Whilst supervised by army survival instructors, they will learn to live in wild and use basic tools as well as learning how to light fires, build shelters, catch food and lots more. Offsite, visits are planned to local venues that offer: rock climbing, kayaking and canoeing, mine exploration, gorge walking, mountain biking to name but a few. Conferencing at Broomley Grange is of the highest standards and everything is done to meet the needs of corporate visitors. A designated conference room exists on the first floor, whilst most rooms can be adapted for meetings and presentation tools are available for hire on the day. Day conferences are organised for a minimum of 15 people and refreshments served throughout the day. The day rate also includes a hot/cold buffet lunch. Residential conference packages are offered on a dinner, bed and breakfast basis with the centre being licensed to serve alcohol if desired in the evenings.
