

STATHAM LODGE

Country House Hotel

Statham Lodge Country House Hotel is a breathtaking Georgian manor house hotel, benefiting from stunning views of the Cheshire countryside, surrounded by acres of private gardens. Packed with original features, this charming and glamorously stylish hideaway is ideal for those in search of a luxury country break, superb dining and some well earned time away from busy lives.

In light of this it is no surprise that Statham Lodge was recently commended with an Online Award for Hotel Specialist of the Year 2010. The Judges were particularly impressed with the Hotel's 37 individually designed bedrooms which have all been recently re-decorated and refurbished to the highest standards including a Master Suite, Deluxe Suite and Bridal Suite with spa bathroom available. All bedrooms offer en-suite facilities, together with direct dial telephones, trouser press and hairdryer, in-room hospitality tray and free wireless internet access.

As part of the Hotel's commitment to offer the best possible service to all its' visitors ground floor rooms are available together with a range of disabled facilities.

Boasting beautifully landscaped gardens that make an ideal backdrop for Wedding photographs, the Hotel's two dedicated Function Rooms – The Shelley and The Roulette Room & Gainsborough Suite, form ideal venues for private celebrations and corporate functions.

- The Roulette Room & Gainsborough Suite holds up to 200 delegates, and offers a Bose sound system, two NEC 3000 lumens ceiling mounted XGA projectors featuring dual projection facility.
- Formally the drawing room of the original Manor House, the Hotel's main restaurant The Shelley is available for weddings, civil ceremonies and small receptions. Providing stunning views out onto the Carriage Drive and The Rose Garden, The Shelley is decorated in traditional style and will comfortably hold up to 45 guests. Both venues are beautifully furnished, with free wireless internet access, natural daylight and full air conditioning.
